

Teaching and Researching the Anglophone World in Europe

15 years

METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY PRAGUE

An international roundtable conference hosted by the Department of Anglophone Studies,
Metropolitan University
Prague

29 April 2016
MUP Praha-Jarov,
Učňovská 100/1, Praha 3
Room 1102

PROGRAMME

9.45 – 10.00 Opening remarks

10.00 – 10.45 Session 1

PATRICIA PLUMMER (Universität Duisburg-Essen)

Border Crossings: Postcolonial Studies in 21st-Century Europe

NEIL DAVIE (Université Lyon 2)

Teaching and Researching British History in France

10.45 – 11.30 Session 2

DAVID TOMS (Council on International Education Exchange, Prague)

Beyond a Boundary: Writing and Researching Irish History in a Central European Context

LIOBA SCHREYER (Universität Duisburg-Essen)

Teaching Anglophone Literature to German Undergraduate Students

11.30 – 12.30 Lunch Break

12.30 – 13.00 Session 3

JAN VOLÍN (Charles University Prague / MUP) and RADEK SKARNITZL (Charles University Prague)

Current Debate on the Sound of Non-Native English

13.00 – 13.45 Session 4

HELENE VON BISMARCK (The British Scholar Society)

Researching and Promoting British History in Continental Europe

ONDŘEJ PILNÝ (Charles University Prague / MUP)

Irish Studies in Europe: Challenges and Opportunities

13.45 – 14.45 Final discussion

moderated by Prof. Martin Procházka (Charles University Prague / MUP)

The event is free of charge. Please register at <http://registrace.mup.cz>