

INFORMATION ABOUT NEW KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

from academia and profession on the IFRS conference at MUP
October 10 and 11, 2019

Dear conference participants

Further to our invitation to the seventh edition of the conference IFRS: Global Rules and Local Use this year with further specification Beyond the Numbers, signifying frequent extension of topics to nonfinancial reporting organized by Department of International Business at Metropolitan University Prague, on October 10 and 11, 2019, which is focussing on the application of international standards from both theoretical and practical perspectives we would like to inform you that we have invited another four keynote speakers both from academia and profession:

1. Prof. Ing. Lubor Lacina, Ph.D. - Jean Monnet Chair in European Economic Studies from think tank Mendel European Centre Mendel University in Brno, Czech Republic
Prof Lacina is specializing in international economics and problems of Eurozone.

2. Prof. El. Thalassinos, Ph.D., MBA, DHC 2013, DHC 2015, DHC 2018
Prof. University of Piraeus, Greece, Affiliate Prof. University of Malta
Visiting Prof. Neapolis University of Cyprus and Open University of Cyprus
European Chair Jean Monnet, Editor-in-Chief ERSJ, IJEBA, IJMTEI, Chair ICABE

3. Prof. Ing. Luboš Smutka, Ph.D., Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, Czech Republic, who specializes in commodities markets and world agricultural policy.

4. On the part of professional experts we will have Dr. Aleš Králík, LL.M., head of department of capital markets of the Ministry of Finance, Czech Republic, one of the authors of new conception of development of Czech capital market.

We look forward to your contributions and to our discussion. Please, see the third call for papers attached. We will also inform you about future publication possibilities in due course.

Best regards

Irena Jindrichovska, Metropolitan University Prague, conference chair
Dana Kubickova, University of Finance and Administration